(U) Haiti – Surging Gang Violence in Haiti's Capital Leaves Nearly 200 Dead in One Month

(U) Port-au-Prince – The United Nations Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs said that surging gang violence in Haiti's capital has left nearly 200 people dead and thousands displaced in the last month alone. Officials say heavily armed rival gangs began clashing and seizing territory in Port-au-Prince with new intensity in late April forcing more than 16,800 people, including children, to abandon their homes and shelter into temporary accommodations. At least 92 of the 188 people reportedly killed in the last month were non-gang members, with another 113 people injured, 12 missing and 49 kidnapped for ransom. Haiti has been in turmoil for years, but the violence escalated dramatically since the assassination of President Jovenel Moise last July.
